

Belen Society

The past week witnessed a heavy exodus of the Deming smart set to the California coast and fashionable eastern watering places. Among the early departures was Mrs. J. G. Moir, honorary president of the Woman's club of Deming, and a prominent member of the social set, for an extended visit to California. Mrs. Moir will be absent until the late fall.

Mrs. H. C. Bush and Mrs. Henry Hall, two of Deming's young matrons, left Sunday morning for Long Beach, Cal., and adjacent summer resorts.

A party departing Friday morning for a lengthy visit to the east was composed of Mrs. Martha B. Ament, Mrs. Sam Watkins and Mr. P. A. Burdick. Their itinerary includes the principal fashionable resorts of the east and attractive watering places along the Atlantic coast. The party will visit the south before returning to Deming in the early winter.

Mrs. C. J. Laughton and her daughter, Miss Katherine Laughton, departed Wednesday for the east and will spend the greater portion of the warm season in the lake districts of Michigan and Wisconsin.

Mrs. Mary Eugenia Hudson and Mrs. Mayme Williams, for a few days this week visiting in El Paso, Little Miss Elizabeth Johnson went down from Deming to El Paso Tuesday last to witness the Prependezne parade and was the guest of friends there during the succeeding day season.

Miss Jessie Guinnan, one of Deming's charming girls, is on a house-party near Nott, N. M., where she is the recipient of many attentions.

Colonel and Mrs. C. O. Berryman, representative members of the Deming smart set, ate located pleasantly for the summer in the Rodolfo apartments in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Pollard and Little Miss Wanda Pollard departed this week for the coast, to be absent until the fall season.

Mrs. C. A. McCleary leaves next week to spend the warm months along the coast.

Mr. John Keeley will leave for California early in July.

Mrs. Wm. J. Clifford and her daughter, Miss May Long Clifford, leave Sunday evening for an extended stay in California, stopping over on the way in Salt Lake City.

Mr. H. H. Kelly is in Memphis on a business visit.

St. Luke's guild met Monday with Mrs. George Shepherd at her home on Gold avenue and spent a most enjoyable afternoon. A fine program was rendered. Mrs. Graham gave a vocal solo and Misses Katherine Wamel and Esther Bolich executed a duet in masterly style. Miss Margaret Randolph delighted the audience with a clever reading. After the program Mrs. Shepherd served a dainty tea course. The guild has discontinued its meetings for the summer.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

In local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is no cure for deafness, but that by combination with remedies, deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, the sense of hearing is lost, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube relieved. There are about nine cases out of ten caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one simple remedy (not caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

Old Folks Saved From Suffering

Mrs. Mary A. Dean, Taunton, Mass., in her 87th year, says: "I thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proven most beneficial to my kidneys."

Mr. Sam A. Hooper, High Point, N. C., writes: "My kidney trouble was worse at night and I had to get up from five to seven times. Now I do not have to get up at night, and consider myself in a truly normal condition, which I attribute to Foley Kidney Pills, as I have taken nothing else."

Mrs. M. A. Bridges, Robinson, Mass., says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for two years. I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills about six months ago, and though I am 81 years of age, I feel like a 16-year-old girl."

Foley Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and up-building, restorative, normal action in the kidneys and to a disordered and painful disorder. They act quickly and contain no dangerous or harmful drugs.

We first laugh at the follies of the small boy, but when they become serious it is time to think of a drug store.

The prudent thing to do is: prepare in advance for the little folks' indiscretions, sure to be committed, by HAVING ON HAND a full supply of household remedies.

Come in; we will help you select the remedies that should always be in every home.

ton, of Columbus, are installed comfortably in the Episcopal rectory, and are a welcome acquisition to the social life of Deming.

Faywood Hot Springs is a mecca these warm days for smart parties and a particularly enjoyable one recently included Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Lane, Miss May Clifford and Mr. John Keeley, Miss May Cooper and Mr. George Shanks. Miss Rosalie Patterson, Miss Rose Chester, and the Rev. Joe M. Carnett. The party made the trip in two automobiles and dined at the hotel, motoring back to Deming in the late afternoon after a delightful day at the resort.

Major Maurice Nordhaus made a flying business trip to Arizona the past week.

About Books ::

The quaint Irish Patsy of "The Primrose Ring" is—or at least we assume she is the same—the grown-up heroine of Ruth Sawyer's latest novel, "Seven Miles to Arden." The story is lively, witty, romantic, full of the most opportune coincidences and making exotic demands upon the credulity of those who read, and is readable only because Patricia is much of the time charming. Patsy, an actress and merry unconventional maiden, overhears a wealthy society girl refuse to stand by her fiance, who is in trouble, and follows the man—though she has never seen his face—hoping to brace him up with encouragement. She follows him, not for a block of two, but for days and over a path that leads into the country where she picks up a wandering tinker and they travel together, getting into all kinds of scrapes and having many cheerful adventures. Patsy thinks she can find the discarded suitor at Arden, where his father is ill, and tries to get there. But some adventure or other is always taking her out of the way, so that each time when she conquers the distance it is just seven miles to Arden.

The tinker is a most unusual vagabond and the amusing story, while unconventional, is full of gaiety and incident fun.

Two other books by Olive Higgins Prouty are as interesting as they are American. One, "Bobbie, General Manager," deserves all the kind things that have been said about her. She is a sweet, strong, womanly girl, who tells her story, so that the book is an auto-biographical novel. She manages a large motherless family in New England, helps her brothers and sisters in their struggles, making their problems of business education and love her own. Bobbie is a high-tempered and sweet hearted, original of mind and steadfast of spirit. She is the American girl at her best. Throughout the book there are amusing passages, and all is of real life, wholesome and good to read.

"The Fifth Wheel," by the same author, is a little more elaborate, a story of the same family after their finances have increased by marriage of one of the number with a rich girl. And this novel is the story of Ruth—Vance's sister—the youngest member of the family, who introduces herself.

It is the kind of girl who goes away to fashionable boarding school when she is sixteen, has an elaborate coming-out party two years later, and then proves she is a success or failure by the number of invitations she receives, the frequency with which her dances are cut into at balls and—by the kind of marriage she makes.

This is the kind of girl that often wins a "brilliant match" ready revolves around her useless, conventional life—just a "fifth wheel to a coach," she calls herself—and her dramatic experience in the world of loving and working follows.

Mrs. Prouty's book gives the very spirit of our time from a woman's standpoint, a time when the younger generation questions the standards of the older and a real and important conflict of this kind is taking place in almost every home. The young woman who has herself in Ruth Vane, will face with her the struggle rising out of being a woman, and will share in her attempt to become a real and independent human being.

NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Mrs. Ernest Spitz expects to leave in a day or two for Los Angeles, to visit her sister, Mrs. Sol Schiff, for two months. Mr. Spitz will follow later.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Williams, of Los Angeles, spent two days with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mahoy the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. William are on an overland trip to Pueblo, Colo., to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Kircher left Thursday for Santa Fe to make their future home. Mr. Kircher having been transferred to that city to succeed Don P. Johnston as supervisor of the Santa Fe national forest.
